Testimonial

“As we get ready for our last team to move into Building 37, I wanted to express my sincere thanks on a job well done to this team. You have worked together to manage all the ups, downs, hurdles and hiccups along the way. Your efforts are valued and appreciated.”

- Brendan Robinson Director, Facilities and Operations

The Challenge

- Must achieve seamless relocation from multiple locations
- Create and managed the day 2 and punch list for the entire project
- Exceptional communication – create an entire Welcome Book for the project that detailed all aspects of the new location
- Assist in creating continuous workflow throughout the multi-phased process

Exceptional Client Outcome

- CBRE Business Transition and Move Management Services completed a successful multi phase relocation. Through working closely with the internal UA staff, creating a customized communication process, and flexibility on CBRE’s behalf, the project was completed on budget while minimizing stress and downtime for employees.
